GOOD NEWS from Shane Homan: “The 4th of July weekend has been a good one,” Shane says. “We’ve been very busy.”

Busy is a good thing, and it’s for sure, Shane and his crew will be busy with the Elks Tournament taking place this weekend. The course will be closed to regular golf as Elk play begins Friday, July 9th at 10 a.m.; all day Saturday, until 4 p.m., and Sunday a.m. until noon with the sole survivor following. Everyone is welcome to ‘come on down Sunday,’ to watch and cheer for their favorite team as the golfers vie for a spot in the limelight.

Check out the pro shop. Shane is adding stock every day. He has a few hybrids on hand, the club that is a great addition to anyone’s golf bag. As I’ve been told, this club is magic . . . it can get you out of trouble anywhere on the course, i.e. divots, and “in-the-rough shots. Sounds great.

The Course

“Let sunshine reign on our golf course, not the rain.” Must be the mantra Kenny Storm and the boys are repeating to themselves as they try to keep up with the growing grass on the fairways and the greens. The short-term weather forecast looks like someone is listening. The course is breathtakingly beautiful on these sun shiny days and early evenings.

Special thanks to Dan Cornett for trimming around trees and bushes on the course, and Cheryl Kooch for pulling weeds. Cheryl says, “ Hey, this is my golf course too, and if I can help, I want to do it.” Dan claims once Cheryl starts pulling weeds she doesn't know when to stop. She has not only done a good job, she is inspiring.

Notice how weed-free it is along the fence by the clubhouse, and also near the bend in Trout Creek/bridge area near the #1 tee box, then give Dan and Cheryl a high-five, or whatever they give nowadays.

A VIEW FROM THE FORWARD TEES - The Ladies Group

We have had a great turnout on Tuesday's Ladies Day. Our membership includes 26 women, the highest count in a long while, and we also have four auxiliary members, including Joyce Hays, Frieda Hansen, Joyce McFetridge and Mary Hearing. It is good to see the enthusiasm, the working relationship, and the camaraderie that is shared among the group, especially during our sole survivor contest.

Check out the nine flower beds near the forward tees. Thanks to the ladies, you now see colorful flowers blooming which truly enhances the landscape. What has been discovered in taking on this venture is that not only can the gals hit a golf ball, they can do it with a green thumb.

The date for the ladies invitational will be August 24, instead of the usual 2nd Tuesday in August. Be sure and check the date and sign up to play.

The Baker Invitational is usually the first Wednesday in August. Sign up in the ladies lounge. The Baker course is fun, a challenge, and when you add the ingredient of hospitality it measures up to a triple AAA rating. They are also very supportive of our own invitational.

A thank you to Cheryl Kooch, and her daughter Sherrie Kilgore for cleaning up the flower bed on #2 tee. Again, the two women went ahead and got the job done. They, along with help from the grandkids, pulled weeds, and low and behold the pretty flowers began to bloom. The hillside looks so much better.

Also a thank you to Ernestine Kilgore who took charge of cleaning the upstairs kitchen and eating area. Several gals offered their help to wipe down walls, clean light fixtures, scrub kitchen appliances, and take inventory. They dusted a never-ending stack of chairs, and mopped the floor.
